SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. Samuel E. Smith, an old and well-known citizen, died suddenly in the oyster house at the northeast corner of Cameron and Fairfax street about 8:30 o'clock this morning. Mr. Smith had been in charge of the oyster house since the beginning of the oyster season, and he opened the place as usual this morning. Later when Mr. Frank Roberts entered Mr. Smith was apparently in his usual health, and was engaged in filling a mail from an iron hoop, when he suddenly manifested signs of indisposition and rose from a chair in which he was seated. He placed his hand upon his breast and complained of a sharp pain. Mr. Roberts placed him on a chair and went out for the purpose of securing aid. When he returned he found Mr. Smith lying on the floor. Upon examination he was found to be dead. He had evidently fallen from the chair when death overtook him. The deceased was 66 years old. He leaves a widow and four children—two sons and two daughters. Mr. Smith was a son of the late James Smith, who was a wharf-builder of this city many years ago. During the first term of the late President Cleveland he was employed in the custom house in this city. He was a quiet and good citizen throughout life.

FUGITIVE CAUGHT.

William Phillips, who had been indicted by the grand jury of the Corporation Court for stealing a horse and buggy belonging to Mr. C. E. Elliott, of this city, and who with Edward Morris, indicted for forgery, broke out of jail an early hour last Sunday morning, was arrested in Washington last night. The authorities of this city were notified and City Sergeant Cox went to Washington today to see if the fugitive would allow himself to be conducted to this city without a requisition.

The city sergeant and Chief Goods reached this city about noon with Phillips in custody. The latter, who appeared to have been drinking, did not object to accompanying the officers. Phillips said Morris was in Washington, but he was not disposed to be communicative, and did not tell the sergeant nor chief where the other fugitive could be located.

LIVE AND LET LIVE.

There are people who go through this world with a frown on their faces and a downcast look as if the future of this great nation depended on them. They are apparently miserable themselves and make life unbearable to those with whom they come in contact. If they wish to dispel the clouds which overhang their sterner existence and at the same time add their mite to a fund which is a dispenser of sunshine to many a helpless family, they can do so by finding out "What Became of Parker," at the Opera House tomorrow night. This farcical comedy will be played by the Elks' Dramatic Club Thursday and Friday nights for the benefit of the charity fund of Alexandria Lodge of Elks. Our aim will raise at 8 o'clock sharp. Tickets on sale at Edgar Ward's drug store.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Eaton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James P. Grimsley, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.
Wm. Brooks, colored, charged with stealing brass from the Southern Railway Company, had his case continued.
E. O. Halliday, charged with trespassing upon property of the Southern Railway Company, was fined $5.
August Alexander, colored, charged with stealing coal from the Southern Railway Company, was dismissed.
R. J. Ekloff, charged with trespassing upon property of the Southern Railway Company and with carrying concealed weapons, was fined $50.

ELITE PICTURE HOUSE

The Elite Motion Picture House still maintains its prestige as a first-class place of entertainment. No better pictures are exhibited in this city than here. A big show is promised for tonight, three thousand feet of film being used. The crowds which visit this house are fully repaid and particularly will this be the case tonight as the Elite will have the largest show ever seen in this city. The pictures are "Ruffians Thrashed," "Beatrice Cenci," "Pretty Flower Girl," "She Wanted to Be an Actress," "A Victim of His Honesty," and a "Double Suicide," all excellent subjects.

RELINQUISH FIRE COMPANY.

There was a well-attended meeting of the Reliance Fire Company last night. Considerable business of interest to the organization was transacted. It was determined to revise the roll and drop the names of persons who do not attend meetings nor show interest in the company. After the adjournment of the meeting the members indulged in an over roast which had been furnished by Mr. L. E. Uhler, president of the company.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS.

Civil service examinations for positions as clerk and carrier in the Washington post office were held at the custom house building in this city today and will be continued tomorrow. The examinations are being conducted by N. L. Williamson, assisted by R. T. Lucas, jr., of the local examining board. Today 46 males, 29 white, 17 colored, and 12 females, 11 white, 1 colored, presented themselves for examination.

THE ALEXANDRIA GERMAN CLUB.

A meeting of the committee of the Alexandria German Club, on Monday night, the following dates were fixed upon for the dances to be given during the present year—November 27th, December 24th and 31st. The dates for the remaining dances will be determined after the New Year.

Boster Brown Shoes for children are the cheapest because they wear twice as long and are the best. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

THE BAZAAR.

Last night was the Red Letter Night of the bazaar, at the Young People's Building. The scene there presented was one of young life filled with farm-liss life and gaiety. The evening was further enlivened by the attendance of the young men composing the Improved Order of Red Men. They were welcomed by Rev. C. D. Bulla in a few appropriate remarks. Through the kindness of Mr. J. Kaufmann, director of the Mandolin Club, strains of sweet music filled the hall. All the booths did a flourishing business. The Epworth League banquet hall was at its best. Miss Ruth Prey-man with her assistants made an attractive lullaby for not only the young Red Men and young "seators," but the old as well. It is with regret of many that the bazaar closes tonight. Socially and financially it has been a great success. The generosity and patronage of the friends of the Young People's Building has been marked and is deeply appreciated by all and especially by the committee in charge. The bazaar will close with an auction of all articles on hand consisting of groceries, fancy and toilet articles, candy, preserves and pickles. Auction will begin about 9:30. This afternoon was devoted to children.

The contest over the handsome box of candy voted to the most popular young lady taking part in the bazaar, proved most interesting and exciting. A large number of votes were cast and after a careful count Dr. Outcalt announced Miss Alberta Register as the successful candidate.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. James H. Mansfield, of Alexandria, is spending the week in Richmond. [Richmond Journal.]

Mrs. Carroll W. Ashby and her son, Master Carroll Ashby, left yesterday for Minneapolis in which place they will make their home for the present.

Mr. S. R. Shinn, son of Mrs. Margaret Shinn, of this city, is quite sick at his home in Baltimore.

A beautiful ante-nuptial supper was given last night at the residence of the bride-elect on south St. Asaph street, following the wedding rehearsal at St. Paul's Church of Mr. J. Armistead Egg-born and Miss Anita Robbins. A number of the friends of the prospective bride and groom were present. The wedding will take place at St. Paul's Church at 5 o'clock this evening.

Miss Jessie R. Armstrong is this evening entertaining a number of her friends at her residence on Prince street.

At St. Paul's Church, at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow night, Miss Kate Evelyn Makely, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Makely, will be married to Rev. Ivan Marshall Green.

Mrs. William B. Smoot today entertained at a beautiful luncheon at her handsome residence on Prince street, given in honor of Mrs. C. E. Nicol, wife of Judge Nicol, who has recently removed to this city from Manassas. After the luncheon the ladies engaged in an interesting game of "bridge."

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

Special Officers Pankey and Harlan last night arrested two young Washingtonians—B. J. Eckloff and E. O. Halliday—for trespassing upon the property of the Southern Railway Company. A pistol was found on the first-named. The two men were conducted to the station house and brought before the Police Court. Eckloff said he came here with Halliday last night at 10:15 for the purpose of visiting friends. Halliday was fined $5, which he paid, and Eckloff $50. The latter did not have the necessary wherewithal and was sent to jail. In his defense he said he found the pistol after he reached this city.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. O. Barley presiding.]
Wm. Chaucery's Sons vs. Southern Railway Co.; suit for damages for damage to building stone; order overruling demurrer to evidence and refusing new trial and order to Southern Railway Company to pay damages of $100 assessed by jury.

H. Harlan was appointed a police agent for the Southern Railway Company.

OPERA HOUSE.

Tonight the patrons of the Opera House will witness the most thrilling pictures seen this season entitled "The Spirit of '76." This story appeals to the youngest student of history and pictures before him some things of which he has been studying since he entered school. It will be a rare treat to freshen the memory with these soul-stirring scenes. Besides this and other pictures Mr. Daisy Lowman will introduce her song in "Halio."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The bazaar at the Young People's Building will close with an auction sale tonight.

The ladies interested in the coming Masonic fair will meet at the Masonic Temple tonight.

People that never look up: Always trying along in the same old narrow channel of life, without ever caring about what becomes of them—when they eat, they eat most anything. People that live because they know life is worth living. The sort of folk that do things and generally accomplish results. You know—the particular kind—when they eat, they demand the Auth. Product. Sylvan Blumheim, "The Auth. Stand," City Market.

ALEXANDRIA AMUSEMENT CO.

The motion pictures at the Alexandria Amusement Company's tonight will be among the best ever exhibited in this city. They abound both in humor and pathos and appeal to the sublime and ridiculous. If you want an hour's good fun you should visit this house tonight. The pictures are "Yena Yena," "The Swedish," "The Boy," or "Mistaken for a Burglar," "Barbara Fritchie," the Story of a Patriotic American Woman," and "Wife's Strategy."
